

PRESS RELEASE

Disposal of Trader.com (Polska) Sp. Z.o.o

Amsterdam, The Netherlands - May 14, 2008.

Trader Media East Limited ("TME") announces that it has agreed to sell Trader.com (Polska) Sp. Z.o.o. ("Trader.com") to Polish media group Agora SA, for a cash consideration of US$ 54,350,000. The transaction is estimated to be completed in two weeks.

Trader.com is the main operating company of TME in Poland and is a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of TME. Trader.com generated US$ 7.5 million of revenues and approximately US$ 0.1 million of EBITDA in the year 2007. Trader.com revenues accounted for 2.7% of TME's consolidated revenues in 2007. The proceeds of the sale will be used in credit repayment.

The Competency Center in Poland, which develops software and gives support and maintenance services for all TME's internet operations, is not part of the sale.

TME President and CEO, Vuşlat Doğan Sabancı comments: "Our operations in Poland were diminutive compared to our overall operations and relative to the size of the Polish market. Since there were no acquisition opportunities, sustainable growth and profitability would have been harder to achieve considering our aggressive growth targets. As part of our strategy to strengthen our position in our existing markets of Hungary, Croatia, Slovenia, the Russian Federation and CIS we intend to benefit from our favorable balance sheet position to sustain our growth organically and through acquisitions, mainly in internet or in high growth - high margin print businesses. We will continue to pursue opportunities in new markets.

The sale is also a good indicator of the value that has been created in one year since TME became part of the Hürriyet Group. From a valuation perspective, I see this transaction as positive for TME shareholders".
